Letter from the Baronage

Greetings to the people of Windmasters' Hill,

As spring progresses and we move into early summer, we look forward to many happenings in and around Windmasters' Hill. There are events, demos, the Baronial Althing, and a Baronial encampment at Ruby Joust, as well as Canton meetings, A&S gatherings, and fighter practices.

Here is a brief listing of dates and links to more information:

Sat 5/3 = Windmasters' will have a baronial pavilion and potluck hospitality table at Atlantia's Spring Crown Tourney. Lady Emeuldt will be sharing more info on the Keep and on Facebook.

Sat 5/10 = Kapellenberg's May Fair Event in Chapel Hill (<http://www.mayfair.windmastershill.org/> or <https://www.facebook.com/events/1404296206497482/>)

Sun 5/18 = Windmasters' Hill Baronial Althing (<https://www.facebook.com/events/1452328568338315/>)

Also, be on the lookout for info about a Windmasters' Hill Encampment at Ruby Joust (5/23-5/26) and demos at the North Carolina Museum of Art and at the North Carolina Maker Faire the first two weekends in June.

Finally, we wanted make sure everyone had an opportunity to see Friendship Challenge issued by Herring Emeuldt Hansler following Elvegast and Atillium's Tourney of Friends. We heartily support this and hope you will take her up on her invitation. Here is what she wrote:

This weekend will be the Tournament of Friends. This event was grown and created out of cultivating and strengthening friendships within our wonderful Barony and the SCA. With the very underlying theme of this event in mind, issue a challenge to all of those of Windmasters' Hill – A Friendship Challenge. This challenge is meant to help strengthen and grow our Barony, as well as us as individuals. Over the next year, I challenge all of you to seek to build and strengthen: friendships, relationships between Cantons, and our Barony as whole. Consider it a year of tending our garden to help our Barony grow and flourish together.

Some ways to do this could be:

- 1. Hosting joint Canton meetings/fighter practices*
- 2. Opening up your home/hosting a SCA Social, A & S, Newcomers, or All (Social, A & S, & Newcomers all at the same time) Nights*
- 3. Inviting people to join you in your activity that appear to be alone at an event or meeting*
- 4. Introducing yourself to new people or people you don't know very well within the Barony*
- 5. Sharing your A & S or fighting talents by teaching them to others within the Barony*
- 6. Tell someone that you are thankful/grateful for something nice that they did*
- 7. Volunteer and offer to help at events or activities, even if it is not your Canton hosting it*
- 8. Encourage others and help them along the way as they find their way through the SCA*

These are only a few ideas. I will promise you this right now, if you invite me to an activity or night that is planned within our Barony, I will do everything with my power to get out of work and get there. I will do my best over the next year to encourage and cultivate friendship and the growth of individuals and our Barony as a whole. Will you join me in this challenge? I hope so... nothing is fun without having friends by your side :)

Always Yours in Service and Friendship,

Herrin Emeuldt Häsler

Please let us know how we can support you. We look forward to seeing many of you soon at upcoming events.

In service,

Callixtus, Baron of Windmasters' Hill

Adriana, Baroness of Windmasters' Hill

Letter from the Exchequer

Greetings from Tréphine la Broderesse, Chancellor for the Exchequer for the great Barony of Windmasters' Hill:

At the March Baronial Meeting there were questions about monies paid and monies collected for our monthly Baronial Meetings locations. I did the math and since April 2013 we have collected $302.06 with passing the hat during meetings. However to date we have spent $505.00 to pay for meeting locations (and this subtracts the $175 that Optimist refunded for double booking earlier this year). So the collections are not keeping up with the expenses for meeting sites. Something to think about!

Money! Money! Money! I wanted to report some good news! The Bake Sale at Ymir, organized by Baroness Katarina, collected $560 and the Silent Auction at Tourney of Friends, organized by Lady Helwynn, yielded $811! So combined these two efforts added $1,371 to the Baronial coffers, which was slightly more than the profits from Ymir! Thank you to everyone who contributed, purchased, and enjoyed these sales!

Finally, I am working on the first quarter financial report. I will bring a few copies at the May meeting and Althing!

Remember that I am stepping down in August when my warrant expires! Really – I am not kidding!

Tréphine

Letter from the Chronicler

Greetings from your Chronicler!

Group Seneschals—please remember to review your groups information and give me any updates, especially with practices, A&S and meetings!

Speaking of A&S activities, please remember to let me know any upcoming classes or workshops that are going on in your group. Others in the Barony might be interested but might not know it is going on. Also, please remember if you teach a class—think about writing up a short article to submit to the Windlore and share your knowledge with others!

Yours in Service,
Lady Helwynn Ivelchild

Arts & Science

Open Display & Artisans Row!

Competitions:

MAY Flowers! - Any time period, any medium, as long as it includes flowers. Any type of flower! Minimum documentation (Time period, location, and materials used) required, but more in-depth documentation encouraged of course!

Mother May I - This competition is for the kids. Something you think your medieval mom needs, whether it's braided cords to tie up your little brother, or a posey to keep the plague away! Two different age categories - one prize for the 12 and unders, and one prize for the 13 and ups! Minimum documentation encouraged, but not required.

Casa Bellini's C&I Challenge - Scribes of all levels! Beginning, Intermediate, Advanced - Any time period and location, BUT - Calligraphy and Illumination must be documented from the same manuscript. No mixing and matching! Materials are wide open, but points will be awarded for more historically appropriate materials. Minimal documentation is required, preferably including a picture of your source, and any analysis you did in recreating the piece. Pieces must be a Baronial Award blank - Kittyhawks, Boreas, Eurus, Notus, St. Nicolas, Don Quixote, etc. Baronial awards can be found here - <http://windmastershill.org/awards/> All entries become the property of the Baron and Baroness of Windmasters' Hill after the competition. Fantastic Scribal prizes!

Relics and Reliquaries—There will be two categories - religious and non-religious. Religious reliquaries and their holy contents were known throughout the Middle Ages. Use an existing saint or create one of your own, and create a relic and a reliquary for it. Tell us who your saint is, what relic is nestled within the reliquary, and what its holy power is. This competition will be judged by judges. Documentation (at least EZDoc) is required. The second competition is for the buskers, bawdy entertainers, charlatans, and snake oil salesmen among you. Come up with your best entertainment or medicinal remedy and hawk it to the crowds throughout the day. There will be cards with your name and product at the A&S area and the populace will vote by casting "coins" into your "purses." Be creative, energetic, and entertaining. This is for the spirit of the day and the joy of the sheep ...er ... populace so WOW them with your cure for the pox or alternative to leeches! No documentation is required.

WINDMASTERS' HILL COOKS GUILD

Adventures with Tostee

By Master Callixtus Gill

I know Tostee is a funny name. But it is a simple recipe you can make at home in less than 20 minutes. You can find a good redaction by Daniel Myers at (<http://medievalcookery.com/recipes/tostee.html>)

You can also see a digitized version of a mideval manuscript at the following URL (<http://www.bl.uk/learning/langlit/texts/cook/medieval/tosteehome/tostee.html>)

The following are things I have noticed when preparing the sauce. While toast is what is called for in the original I have been using crackers, apples and shortbread cookies in the place of toast. The sauce is pretty sweet so whatever you put it on really does not need to be that sweet.

The basic redaction starts with $\frac{1}{4}$ cup of red wine and $\frac{1}{4}$ cup of clarified honey. I start by heating the pan on low medium heat. Then adding the wine and honey. Start stirring the mixture. I use a spatula since there is only a small amount liquid. The honey will start thick, but as it heats up the mixture will start to act more and more like water. You may also notice the honey not mixing with the wine till it warms up. I try to make sure that while bubbling that the mixture does not go into a full boil.

The mixture will start to “thicken”. The easiest way to notice that is drag your spatula through the mixture and see how long the trailing tail lasts. This should start to happen pretty quickly. The liquid should pour easily while hot, but it will thicken as it cools. Spices can be added if you want but I have found the sauce enjoyable without adding many spices.
