Upcoming Demos:

June 1—Museum of Art (Douglas)

Mini—Ren Faire. Have heard from rapier fighters but not heavy fighters for the demo. iFirenze will perform. Set up is at noon. Demo is from 1pm—4pm.

June 7—Makers Fair (Ia)

Located at the fairgrounds. Have some volunteers but would like some more to help with the rapier display and as greeters.

Officer Needs:

The Exchequer is stepping down in August! We need someone to volunteer to step into this position PLEASE.

Brian has volunteered to step up as our Chatelain!

Ymir 2015—Looking for Ymir bids for next year. There are lots of resources/people you can talk to if you have questions.

Baronial Event—we should host another Baronial event. Perhaps in November. Please think of event ideas/bids.

Pennsic—for the Pennsic camp it was moved that we allocate $400.00. This was seconded and approved. None opposed.

Cantons:

Attilum—upcoming demo at the Kiwanis Camp on July 17 (Thursday) mid-day. Looking for volunteers. On July 13, Sophie is teaching a dance class in Attilium.

Elvegast—needs a Chatelain. September 20—hosting Fall University at Optimist Farm. Going to be “Pennsic” style using outdoor tents.

Nimenfeld—September 26-28 is Midnight at the Oasis (MATO)

Next Meeting: Honeycutt Road Park (Fuquay Varina, NC) Not going to reserve a covered shelter—we’re going to try “first come, first served”.

Baronage:

Need more calendar feeds from the cantons to feed into the Baronial calendar. If you have questions, please ask.

Baronial Brewing Champion chosen today: Lady Eilion!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY CALLI!!!

Meeting was closed at 5:50PM.

Notes from the Baronial Althing

This was set up as a brainstorming session with those present. Their Excellencies will report more fully on what was discussed.

NEXT BARONIAL fighter practice & meeting
Sunday, June 15

Honeycutt Road park at 5:00pm
101 fitness drive, Fuquay-varina

Fighter practice starts at 1:00pm
Meeting starts at 5:00 PM

Letter from the Baronage

Greetings to the noble populace of Windmasters' Hill:

Thank you to everyone who came to May Fair and the Baronial Althing. Whether you helped set-up, cleanup, fought, taught, took a class, shared a dish you cooked, etc., your presence added to others' enjoyment of the day! We hope you had a grand time as well.

In the first few weeks of June, we will be hosting two demos. On Sunday, June 1, Baron Douglas is coordinating a presence at the North Carolina Museum of Art's Family Renaissance Faire. The next weekend Baroness Ia looking for help for help to staff a demo at the North Carolina Maker Faire on Saturday, June 7 and Sunday, June 8. Please contact either if you would like to lend a hand. Also, it is likely that we will be seeing some new faces after these demos at meetings, events, fighter practices, or arts gatherings. Please take a minute to introduce yourself and see if they might have any questions. If you have more than one or two, perhaps you might consider hosting an SCA 101 class or a Q&A session.

It will be a very busy summer and early fall for the Barony. We are already planning for the baronial Pennsic encampment. His Excellency will be the land agent this year, so please contact him if you have any questions about it. Don't forget that you must pre-register for Pennsic, complete the Windmasters' Hill camp registration form, and pay your camp fee to do so. In September, we look forward to attending two local events and hope you will join us! The Canton of Elvegast is hosting Atlantian Fall University on September 20 at Optimist Farm in Apex, NC. The very next weekend, the Canton of Nimemefeld will be celebrating another Midnight at the Oasis at Optimist Farm.

Finally, we want to take brief minute to thank the persons who serve as baronial officers, on event staff, as baronial retainers or guards, have helped us pack or unpack or even put up the baronial pavilion. We could not do what we do without you. We might forget to individually thank you, but please know that you are greatly appreciated.

In service,

Letter from the Seneschal

Greetings Windmasters,

Over the last few months I have been a little distracted running rapier activities at Ymir, Autocrating the Tournament of Friends Event and over the last month, attending a work related out-of-state leadership training class. I do not want anyone to take my brief distractions as any evidence that my commitment as your Seneschal for the barony have diminished. I would also like to thank those who have picked up the torch in my absence especially Lady Rowan of Hawkridge, my deputy, who handled the May business meeting for me.

Over the next few months, in addition to our normal business, I'd like to put some focus on our baronial camp planning for events such as Pennsic and War of the Wings; our Baronial event planning for Ymir and possible a follow up to Surfs Uprising event; our Demo opportunities and keeping our officer positions filled.

I ask that if anyone in the barony desires to champion any additional topics or would like me to take on or champion them, please let me know.

Of the focus areas I mentioned above, most importantly is the need to identify our next Baronial Exchequer. Lady Trepine has served the Barony diligently in what is without a doubt one of the most demanding positions in the barony for the last 7 years. Her warrant runs out in August, we need to find her a replacement in time to allow her to step down before her warrant expires. If you are an awesome volunteer type and you are interested in filling this open position, their Excellencies request that you send your letters (e-mail will suffice) of intent to myself and the Baronage. We would like to have some time to discuss potential candidate. Please do not be intimidated if you have not held an officer position before, you will have myself and the whole Barony here to support you. If you have any questions about an office vacancy, please feel free to contact me.

Also of great importance, finding our Autocrat for next year's Ymir. If you are interested, even if you have never run an event before, please let me know, we have plenty of experienced mentors who can assist you with the process.

I am sure that many of you have read the recent resignation letter from one of the SCA Board members. In it, he made dire projections for the future of the SCA. What I took from his honest and open assessment is that without our volunteers the SCA will not continue to exist. Without new blood the SCA will not continue to exist. We need to draw in new membership, not just to fighter practices; but also to A&S activities, Archery activities, and Events. We need to make the SCA an open, welcoming and family friendly environment. And, those who have been in the SCA for a while, whether you are a peer or not, need to take an active role in mentoring and encouraging our next generation of SCAdians to participate and take more active roles. If we do not all work to continue the cycle of growing new members, new Autocrats, new Heralds, new Exchequers, new Peers etc... this organization that we all love will wither and eventually die. This dream that we have helped to build and sustain is very special and is worth continuing!

I hope to see you all very soon!

Thank you,
Adelric Falke
(MKA) Darrell Newman
Seneschal, Barony of Windmasters' Hill

Letter from the Chronicler

Greetings from your Chronicler!

As always, I am looking for submissions for the Windlore. Remember we have some demos coming up which might be some great photo opportunities (but remember to get those releases)!

And speaking of Release Forms....

There have been a few questions recently regarding the Model Release form for photographs so here is what the Society Chronicler Policy has to say regarding the matter:

“In addition to the issue of getting the photographer’s permission to use a photograph on a website, there is the question of ability to use a person’s image, as in a group photograph or large scene. This concern’s an individual’s right to privacy, and the right to control use of one’s image. Unlike public figures, private persons have a very strong right to control their image. Just because they are in a public or semi-public place, be it a park or a rented hall, a person in the SCA is a private person and those rights must be honoured. Just because someone is standing at the front of the room, or sitting on the dais under a crown or coronet, does not turn them into a public person.

Therefore, before using any person’s image on a website (or in a printed publication), you must have the permission of that person. It should be in writing, just as permission to publish a poem or drawing or article would be. The key is whether the person can be easily identified. If the only way to identify the person is by the surcote worn over armor, or knowing that a certain lady wears a pink dress with a blue veil which is seen on the back of a woman in the corner of a photo, you probably do not need to worry. But if you can see their face, or other identifying characteristics – the “can their grandmother recognize them in this picture?” determination – or if you want to use their name and identify all persons in the photo, then you should obtain permission.”

Also, please make sure that if you are an officer or a canton seneschal that you review your information in the Windlore each month to make sure I have it up to date. I try to watch the lists and webpages but I might miss something.

Thank you!

Yours in Service,
Lady Helwynn Ivelchild

N C M A D e m o

The demo at the North Carolina Museum of Art on Sunday, June 1 was quite a hit!

They officially counted 2300 at the Family Renaissance Faire, but are estimating that upwards of 3000 people were in attendance.

There were lots of questions from the public, lots of demonstrations and hands-on activities! We presented ourselves and the SCA well, and hopefully got a couple folks interested as well as taught many others something.

A big thanks to Douglas for being the organizer for this demo!

The Metropolitan Museum of Art – Public Domain Digital Images

The Metropolitan Museum of Art announced in May that more than 400,000 high-resolution digital images of public domain works in their collection can now be downloaded from the museums website for non-commercial use.

You can search the collections by artist, medium, location and era: <http://www.metmuseum.org/collection/the-collection-online?tabname=artist-maker-culture>

This program called the Open Access for Scholarly Content (OASC)—provides access to images of art in its collection that the Museum believes to be in the public domain and free of other known restrictions. Images available for free, non-commercial use are designated with this icon . Not all images on the museum website are available for free use because of copyright or other issues so please make sure that any images you download for use contain the OASC designation.

Please remember that the Materials are made available for limited non-commercial, educational, and personal use only, or for fair use as defined in the United States copyright laws and users must cite the author and source of the materials and the citation should include “The Metropolitan Museum of Art, followed by the specific information identified as the “Credit Line” on the Collection page for each work of art. The citation must also include the URL www.metmuseum.org”.

An example of citation in MLA style format would be Artist’s last name, first name. Title of artwork. Year. Name of institution/private collection housing artwork. Title of database or website. Publisher/sponsor of database or website. Medium consulted. Date of access. <URL>.

This lovely image of 16th century embroidery could be cited:

I Firenze Commedia Rehearsals (Chapel Hill) - Every other Monday after the Kappellenburg meetings.

Morris & Sword Dance Practice (Elvegast) - Contact Jaume for more information (craigbdaniel@gmail.com)

Upcoming Classes/Events:

During the 2 hours before the next Baronial Meeting on June 22, Lady Sajah, our current Baronial Champion for Static Arts & Sciences, will be showering us with great resources for newcomers (and those wanting a refresher)!

Sajah's bringing period games for anyone to play with, *AND* she will be teaching newcomer skills like how to get started making garb, finding feast gear, and getting what gear you need to get going having fun in the SCA!

If you are holding an A&S workshop or class please contact me so I can put this information in the Windlore so it is easily accessible for those who might be interested in attending.

If you wish to give a description or list of materials needed, etc. that would be excellent as well. Thank you!

Helwynn Ivelchild
