The meeting was called to order on Sunday, September 21, 2014 at 3:05 PM

Meeting Location: Honeycutt Park, Fayetteville, NC

Paid members present: 25 Unpaid members present: 3

Seneschal:
Welcome to any newcomers!

- Ymir 2015:
- Most key staff positions have been filled. Looking for a Marshal in Charge.
 - Need to get check for ACCEPS ($15).
 - The website will be updated with info shortly.
 - Will be communicating with staff and setting up a staff e-list soon.

The confidence polling was due back on 9/12 and the announcement from their Majesties will happen at Coronation.

University happened yesterday at Optimist Farm hosted by Elvegast! Yay!

Midnight at the Oasis (MATO) is next weekend at the same site.

October is War of the Wings and November is the Buckston B¹⁰ Event.

- War of the Wings Baronial Encampment:
- Pre-reg by 9/25 if you want space in camp.
 - The camp steward will be on site from Wednesday—Sunday.
 - Friday night Spaghetti dinner in camp—$5pp
 - Smores night!
 - FYI—cannot stay tied into the water lines on site—must disconnect when done using water.

- Upcoming Meetings:
- 10/12 (2nd Sunday) at Honeycutt Road Park in Fuquay Varina. Practice @ 12PM—Meeting @ 4:00PM
 - 11/16 at Buckston Event Site. Meeting @ 4PM

Asked for an allocation of $300 for fees for Optimist Farm site rental for December thru March meetings ($15/hr for 5 hours/day). Motion made. Seconded. All in Favor.

Possible upcoming Event—Windmasters’ Cooks & Performers Symposium (Sophie)

- Using Elvegast meeting location—no site fee, just donation.
- Have lots of classes and then a “dinner & show” at the end of the day.
- Looking at hotel group rates.
- Feedback on budget given. Final budget and proposal to be brought to the group later.

Exchequer:

| | | |
|--------------------------|--|--------------------|
| Balance | | $16,814.52 |
| | | |
| Allocations: | | $7,975.00 |
| | | |
| Total Unallocated | | $8,839.52 |

Did a “pass the hat” during the meeting for donations for the winter site fees. $73 donated today.

Dýrrfina took the Exchequer classes at University so as soon as she receives the warrant from the Kingdom she will step up as Baronial Exchequer. Hooray!

Trepine will be doing the review of books at War of the Wings so Dýrrfina will be starting off with a clean slate.

Quartermaster:

The baronial equipment is being left on site from University for use this weekend at MATO.

Knight Marshall:

There was fighting today and 2 new fighters participated!

Herald:

Still looking for a voice (shouty/loud) herald.

Chronicler:

Thank you to his Excellency for getting last month’s Windlore out when the chronicler was ill. Thank you for those who took minutes at the August meeting.

Need to get the write ups for the Officer info articles. If you are an officer and you haven’t gotten one to me, please get it in. Thanks!

MoAS:

Asked if Emmie was still currently hosting the Newcomer/A&S night—it was said she was not at the time being.

Class today before meeting—leather tooling.

Opening in the Commedia troupe—talk to Sophie if interested.

Chancellor of Youth position—Available

Cantons:

Elvegast—Hosted University yesterday and had about 200 attendees. Jora did a fantastic job with the lunch at the event. Good feedback regarding the outdoor university. Had a total of 21 pavilions so thank you to everyone who loaned a pavilion and helped set up/take down. October 2—SCA Customs & Courtesies class.

Kappellenberg—Next month they will be choosing classes again.

Nimenfeld—MATO is next weekend. Could use help with tear down on Saturday/Sunday (need to be off site by 11AM on Sunday).

Baronage:

After the meeting there will be a Pennsic meeting to discuss this past Pennsic and preliminary planning for next year.

MATO—retainers needed!

WOW—siding with Bryce de Byram. They will be on site Friday—Sunday but not camping on site. Contact Jora if you can help with any retaining tasks.

Upcoming events:

- MATO
- WOW
- Coronation
- Dun Carrigs Baronial Birthday
- Buckston's Big Beautiful Boombastic Bucolic Birthday Battlebalooza and Bodacious Bevy-o-Bard (B¹⁰) Event

Results from the polling will be given at Coronation.

Meeting Closed at 4:00PM.

NEXT BARONIAL fighter practice & meeting

Sunday, October 12, 2014

Please note this is the 2nd Sunday of the month

Honeycutt Road Park
101 Fitness Dr, Fuquay Varina, NC 27526

Fighter Practice starts at 12:00 PM
Baronial Meeting starts at 4:00 PM

Letter from the Baronage

As the weather turns cooler we send warm greetings to the people of Windmasters' Hill,

We would like to thank everyone who helped staff and run University and Midnight at the Oasis. These two wonderful events held back to back at the same site have shown the Known World our hospitality and the many skills that exists in our Barony.

In a few short weeks we must all once again travel to Sacred Stone to handle what seems to be a yearly dispute at War of the Wings.

This letter will be written before we hear the outcome of the polling of confidence. Let it be known that no matter the results it has been an honor and privilege to hold these lands for their Majesties. The only way we have been able to try to be your Baronage is through the hard work of many people. To the retainers, guards, event staff, officers and others who give up their time before, during, and after events to make us look like the Baronage our group deserves, we express our deepest gratitude for everything you do.

In November, we will celebrate the Birthday of Buckston-on-Eno. It should be a fine day. On the Sunday after the event, we will hold our Baronial meeting at the same site. If you live near the site and can offer up crash space, please do. This will allow more people to stay and enjoy the event longer since they will not have to travel home that night.

With many thanks,
Callixtus and Adriana

Message from Alain de la Rochelle (adding to the Atlantian Friendship Challenge)

Many of you may “know” me and have heard of my accomplishments. Much of this either from my military service, or service to my passion (SCA) or simply where I work daily and mundanely. The information each of you have gleaned remind me of a part of who I am. A “part” because no one single version is the true picture of my identity.

In our world we define ourselves in many ways. But truly, if the difference in what others see and our own version is minimal then we have a great understanding of what defines us. Now, what truly defines you? First off, if you are reading this then I want to say that YOU have value. More value than you realize.

I left military service six years ago. My employer took a chance and believed in me. They, whether I wanted to admit it or not, were concerned to see if I was able to remove some of the military edge and yet maintain my organizational skills and managerial abilities... It has been a gradual adjustment. One that has been marked with peaks and valleys. There reason I bring up my military service because I want you all to know that it “helps” define me, yet does not limit me to seeing, reacting and acting a certain way.

I have chosen to pursue a passion in the SCA... Heavy fighter, squire and maybe one day Knight. This overt decision has placed me on a path that encourages individual growth, tests my ability to assist and help my fellow man, woman etc and has encouraged me far beyond what I previously imagined. Many a Knight have shared with me this saying... “Alain, first you must believe that you are a knight and then let others realize it”...(Sir Gunther) I remember this saying and when “Rory” from Windmasters’ looked down and frustrated... did I mention the same aspect.. “Rory, the belt I wear is that of a squire but do not let that fool you, because in my heart I am a Knight and I will act like one. Those around you will migrate towards you in order to feel that value that you have.”... I made a point a point to let him know that his actions, although to him, may feel small, to others they often define whether they want to remain, learn and have fun versus leave and never return.

So, I challenge each of you especially those leaving our nation’s military service, to live up to what is expected of you, be better than you are every day, encourage those around you to grow and never forget to remind them that they have value....

Alain de la Rochelle, Squire to Sir Rodrigo Falcone ...

War of the Wings

October 15-19, 2014 at Elchenburg Castle
Boonville, North Carolina

There will be a Baronial Dinner on Friday night which the Baronage will be joining us at! Lady Orla has accepted the challenge to prepare a meal. She is planning to prepare a Spaghetti dinner Pasta with Marinara sauce, Alfredo sauce, Italian sausages. MAYBE meatballs. Garlic bread. A simple lettuce wedge salad. Others could bring dessert? There will be meat and no meat versions. She is also considering a Chicken & Rice Boil for Saturday night. Cost per person will be $5.

The Event Staff is doing camp management land space a bit differently this year. They are letting the Camp Steward manage their campers land requirements. I am working closely with the Event Land Steward to manage the Baronial Camp location.

Adelric Falke
(MKA) Darrell Newman
Seneschal and your Camp Steward for War of the Winds

Martial Activities: Heavy & Rapier melees & tournaments, Archery, Thrown Weapons, Equestrian activities. Lysts and ranges open on Thursday.

Cultural Activities: A&S competitions, classes, exhibitions, and performances will begin on Thursday. There will be a Welcome Social, a Hafla, a Masque and Lord Only Knows WHAT ELSE! We will make a very full schedule.

Baronial Officers—Chatelain

Greetings Windmasters,

I'm here to help the newcomers.

The Office of Chatelain for local branches reports to the Kingdom Chatelain. It is a warranted office with 2 year terms that can be extended in 2 year increments without limit. The requirements to obtain a warrant are as follows: a prospective Chatelain must be recommended for the office by their local branch. They must attend a Chatelain 101 class. They must submit a warrant request to the Kingdom Chatelain. And they must be a card carrying member. Further, warranted Chatelaines must join the e-list, to keep up with announcements and such from Kingdom. There are Quarterly reports that must be submitted. The Atlanti-an Book of Policy covers a few more details. Chatelaines are expected to be familiar with Atlantian Law and Policy.

The office of branch Chatelain is an example of the proverbial 'beast with two masters'. While they report to the Kingdom Chatelain, the office operates as assistant to the Seneschal. I can assure you that the duties to Kingdom are small indeed, and that the office of Kingdom Chatelain is very much a resource and is there to help and encourage branch officers as much or more than anything else.

The function of the office as assistant to the Seneschal, in service to the Barony, is where the greater portion of the duties are. As Baronial Chatelain, I help with demos, respond to inquiries through the Windmasters' Hill web page, set up classes for newcomers, maintain a small library of publications and fliers to show and distribute at events, and assist Canton Chatelaines.

[pause for breath]

Really, the office is a bunch of fun. This is my first office in the Society. Lord Adelric and our Excellencies are a joy to work for and have been very kind and patient in trying not to load me with too much to do and overwhelm me. Experienced Chatelaines have stepped up and helped me greatly. Canton Chatelaines are doing their own thing. Members of the populace are creating and running demos. I am just hoping to grow in this office to be of more help to you all.

Here's a bit more from Kingdom Policy. Quoting this time:

"...assist in newcomer recruitment, education, and acclimatization, and retention. Chatelaines are expected to assist the Seneschal regarding the media, promotional demonstrations (demos), and educational programs for new members...act as the newcomer liaison for a branch and ensure that all information that goes out to the public conveys a true, accurate, and unbiased sense of the purpose and intent of the SCA.....encourage people who show an interest to join the SCA and become involved in their local group. Furthermore, to help those new members, through education, to more easily assimilate into the SCA and their local branch."

A lot of what is in that quote is covered in what is written above it.

There are two points that I want to draw out. Firstly, regarding media, meetings and fighter practices should be in the community calendar and what's up pages of local media... [not events]. Just to let those in our communities without SCAdian friends know that we exist. The Society is nearing its 50th year and no one's ever heard of us. It could help. I could use help making that happen. On the other hand, old media might be dead. So I want to encourage everyone to share their activities and positive experiences with family and friends... co-workers, clients and congregations; always being mindful of how the Society is portrayed.

Secondly, there is retention and acclimation. I want to help people transferring into our area, that are already in the Society, to find their place in our groups and feel welcome.

Lastly, are there ideas, or issues that I, as Chatelaine, might be able help you, patient reader, with? Please let me know.

In Service to the Barony

Brian fitz Gerald

Proposed Corpora Language Change

The SCA Board of Directors seeks commentary on a proposed Corpora language change recommended by the Laurel Sovereign at Arms.

Current language for Corpora VIII.B.2

2. Kingdoms may establish awards and orders conferring Awards or Grants of Arms, and the Crown may award membership in such orders according to the laws and customs of the kingdom. The names and insignia of these awards and orders must be ratified by the Laurel Sovereign of Arms. The order of precedence among orders conferring Awards or Grants of Arms shall be established according to the laws and customs of the kingdoms. Principalities may establish their own awards and orders, but the approval of the Crown is required before these awards and orders may convey Arms.

Proposed language for Corpora VIII.B.2

2. Kingdoms may establish awards and orders conferring Awards or Grants of Arms, and the Crown may award membership in such orders according to the laws and customs of the kingdom. The names and armory of these awards and orders must be registered by the Laurel Sovereign of Arms. The order of precedence among orders conferring Awards or Grants of Arms shall be established according to the laws and customs of the kingdoms. Principalities may establish their own awards and orders, but the approval of the Crown is required before these awards and orders may convey Arms.
