Letter from the Baronage

Happy May to the Premier Barony in Atlantia!

May is usually a very busy month and this one proves no different. We will be attending Atlantia's Spring Crown, Tournament, the North Carolina Museum of Art Demo, Ruby Joust, and our Cooks and Performers Symposium. We hope that we will see many of you at one or more of these events.

Please know that we will be choosing our new Baronial Bardic Champion at Cooks and Performers. Our Armoured, Rapier, Equestrian, and Static Arts Champion will be determined at the Tourney of Granada Labor Day weekend. If you wish to be considered as a potential champion, we ask that you make yourself known to us. We do ask that each of our Champions demonstrate skill in the area he / she will may represent, but also support the other at least one of the other main three main pillars (service, arts, martial activities) of the SCA as well. We do ask that our Champions bring their regalia to events so they might represent the Barony in processions and in court. Also, we ask that you think about how you can promote and encourage others to participate in the activity for which you are Champion. Please let us know if you have any questions.

Finally, if you wish to camp with the Barony at Ruby Joust, Pennsic, or War of the Wings plans for each are under way. Information will be shared by each of the baronial camp stewards as it becomes available. Also, if you plan to attend any of these events and camp with the Barony, you MUST register so the camp is allocated enough land.

In service,
Callixtus & Adriana
Baron & Baroness of Windmasters' Hill

Letter from the Minister of Arts & Sciences

Hail Windmasters' Hill from your Minister of Arts and Sciences!

I have 4 topics of interest for you this month:

1) We have two new Deputy MOASes making for a total of THREE DEPUTIES for the MOAS office! You all heard that Lady Eilon bat Miriam stepped up in November to be a Deputy, and now Elvegast's formidable ladies Isabela and Alfarin have also stepped up to help! Eilon is always ready to teach a class in making nearly anything, and her passion is the Ottoman culture. Isabela loves to dance and help wherever she can. Alfarin has been with us for just about 6 months and is extremely crafty and skilled at easy hospitality table recipes!

Alfarin and Isabela are helping to get baronial members signed up into the Baronial Artisan Directory and also are working on conducting the Baronial Artisan Interviews. Wait... what's that you say? You haven't heard about the Baronial Artisan Directory or the Baronial Artisan Interviews? Well then, I'm glad you asked!!

2) We now have an online spreadsheet to track what arts are being done by all our baronial citizens! You... yes YOU are welcome to add yourself to the spreadsheet and rank yourself in all of the many many categories of arts listed there! These categories were based on the Personal Pentathlon categories and tweaked a little. Please feel free to add a category to the far right end of the spreadsheet if you wish. Please rank yourself from 0-3 in your skill level for any and all of the arts listed. 0= no skill at all and 3 = mastery of the skill (unrelated to your participation in any peerage).

Please visit this web page to add yourself: <https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1PT3KKh8GmFuh8S5fzWdzZFUqj8ILtiSL-zw4NVBdA/edit?usp=sharing>

3) Baronial Artisan Interviews

I developed a short list of interview questions for the sake of interviewing any and all the artists in Windmasters Hill to then get a clearer idea of what arts people are doing, teaching, and want to do in the future. I interviewed two people myself, I gave the questions to our noble and artsy Seneschal to interview herself, and I'm publishing the questions here so all baronial members can interview themselves and publish the results.

I invite all baronial members to answer these questions and post the results to the Keep and/or the Windlore! (Helwyn always needs more content!) I will collect them in one document as we go for future reference.
