Letter from the Baronage

It is almost upon us. The burden and honor of following our King and Queen onto the field of battle has nearly arrived. Time to stand and be counted as one of those who did. It is our duty, our obligation, our burden, and our honor to help protect our Monarchs. I hope to see you at Pennsic. I understand that for many the world has put obstacles in your path which makes it impossible to go to war. To you I would remind you that there are other ways you can contribute to your Kingdom. Find one of them and help keep our kingdom strong, help keep our kingdom united, help keep our kingdoms dream alive. I will be at Pennsic but since some of our children have returned to the fold unexpectedly Her Excellency is unsure if She can make it as She had planned. Without her presence I will need extra help in keeping the camp running smoothly. I know there are many folks who will help and I say before hand, "Thank you". It will take hard work to set up, run, and break down our camp but I am certain our people will make it happen and make it fun. Fun is our objective. It's our vacation so let's make sure we keep that part in mind. (smile)

I remain yours in service and deed.
 Daemon Broussard, Baron of Windmasters' Hill.

Letter from the Chronicler

Greetings to the Populace of Windmasters' Hill,

I hope you are all having a wonderful summer! I know I am. If you are anything like me, you are probably very busy, but consider writing up an article about all the cool things you are doing! If you have any questions or need any assistance, please let me know. I am more than happy to help out in any way I can.

Also, please verify your officer and canton information so I can make updates if needed!

Yours in Service,
 Lady Æsa Þorarinsdottir

Tournament at Elchenburg Castle

November 10-12, 2017

Hosted by the Canton of Charlesbury Crossing

<https://tourneyatelchenburg.wordpress.com/>

It is Charlesbury Crossing's privilege... nay, our PLEASURE to tell you of a tournament the likes of which has never before been seen in the Kingdom of Atlantia! Join us on the feast day of Saint Leo the Great for a Grand Tournament that will pit tourney companies against tourney companies.

Archers! Practice your aim, for your accuracy will determine the fate of your team in the lists.*

Heralds! Your words will carry loud and far crying the virtues of your company!*

Squires, Knights, Men-at-Arms! Polish your armor and prepare to meet your fellows on the field.*

Cavalry! The skillful partnership of horse and rider will be on display for all to see!*

Will your tourney company take the day and prove to be the Seekers of Serenity, Protectors of Elchenburg Virginity, and the Enforcers of our Sovereign King?!?

The Members of Cavalry are invited to form their own tournament companies (consisting of 1 rider, 1 herald, 1 archer, & 2 armored combatants) under the arms of their choice and/or creation to compete in the Grand Tournament on Saturday. The tournament will begin with an Archery Tournament, followed by an Armored Melee, then completed by the Cavalry Challenge Course. The finale of the tournament will be a singles Jousting Tournament for all those authorized.

All activities will happen where the attendees can watch and enjoy the prowess of the competitors from the comfort of the Ladies' Gallery or their personal pavilions. Spectators will be judging to determine Best Procession, Best Heraldic Display, and Best Herald of the Day. In addition to the Grand Tournament on Saturday, there will be various A&S Competitions Children's Activities, including a hobby horse race at the completion of the armored melee!

After the completion of the Tournaments on Saturday the evening will feature a Buffet Feast of Sausage and Sauerkraut, followed by a Bardic Boasting Competition, Songs of Chivalry, and Mulled Cider around a beautiful bonfire.

Arriving on Friday? We will entertain you Friday afternoon and evening with A&S activities, field games, a torchlight armored Cheapside Tournament, and a Pre-Tournament Ball surrounded by the arms of the Tournament Companies.
